To ensure that your child will receive the monetary award promptly, you must register your child for PayNow (NRIC) before the day of the presentation ceremony.

Here are some important points to note:

- Have a bank account ready or open a bank account for your child

Your child must have a bank account with 1 of these participating banks. It can be under your child's name or your child's joint account with you.

- Bank of China (BOC)	- Maybank
- Citibank Singapore Limited	- OCBC Bank
- DBS Bank / POSB	- Standard Chartered
- Industrial and Commercial Bank of China (ICBC)	- United Overseas Bank (UOB)
- HSBC

- Register for PayNow using your child's NRIC or Birth Certificate number

Note that the monetary award will not be credited to your child if you register for PayNow using your mobile number or your NRIC number instead.

If you have already registered your child for PayNow (NRIC) last year, you do not need to register again. However, if you wish to change the linked bank account, you must de-register the existing PayNow set-up and register for PayNow again with the new preferred bank account.

You can use the bank's online banking website, mobile banking app or through SMS. Check with your bank on the available registration modes. You can also refer to the next page for more information.

If you link your child's Child Development Account (CDA) for PayNow, note that you will not be able to withdraw the monetary award in cash and can only use it to offset your child's educational and healthcare expenses at approved institutions, as per CDA's approved usages. The CDA will be closed at the end of the year your child turns 12 years old. Thereafter, funds in the CDA will be automatically transferred to your child's Post-Secondary Education Account, subject to a cap.

Wait for the invitation letter from your Constituency Office and attend the ceremony. The award monies will be triggered after the ceremony.

If you did not attend the ceremony, or if there was no ceremony, please check with the Community Centre/Club on the certificate collection and e-payment details.
